Copel Distribuição Elected Brazil's Best Distributor in the Consumers' Opinion

Companhia Paranaense de Energia (COPEL), a company that generates, transmits, distributes and sells power, with shares listed on B3 (CPLE3, CPLE5, CPLE6), NYSE (ELPVY, ELP) and LATIBEX (XCOP), hereby notifies its shareholders and the market in general that, for the second consecutive year, Copel Distribuição was elected the best distributor in the country and in the South region in the client's opinion, according to the Aneel's Consumer Satisfaction Index (IASC). The award ceremony was held in Brasilia this Monday, February 25, 2019.

Aneel's index is measured through an opinion poll with consumers all over Brazil and unveils the consumer's satisfaction with the services provided based on a number of criteria, such as the quality perceived by the client, the benefit-cost ratio of services, overall satisfaction and trust in the supplier.

With this award, among so many others won by Copel Distribuição in recent years, such as the awards from Abradee (Brazilian Association of Energy Distributors) and Cier (Regional Commission of Energy Integration), the Company restates its commitment to continuously improve the quality of services and of the energy supplied to its consumers.

The energy distribution segment has been an important focus of Copel's investments, with the purpose of expanding and modernizing the electric energy grid to increase efficiency and reduce costs, as well as actions to innovate and excel in customer service.

Curitiba, February 26, 2019.
