OFFICIAL LETTER 1994/2015-SAE: CLARIFICATION IN RELATION TO AN ARTICLE PUBLISHED BY THE PRESS

Through Official Letter SAE 1994/2015 of May 19, 2015, you request us information about the content of the article published in the “Valor Econômico” newspaper, edition of May 19, 2015, entitled “State of Paraná considers selling stakes held in Copel and Sanepar”.

Copel clarifies that not aware of any plan of the State of Paraná to partially or fully sell its controlling interest in the Company.

Additionally, Copel informs that Mr. Carlos Alberto Richa, Governor of the State of Paraná, representing the majority shareholder, declared, in official notice released today, that any initiative or plan to partially selling the controlling interest in this Company is discarded.

In the notice, the Governor affirms: "I did not authorize and I did not discuss this issue with anybody. I respect the personal opinion of Secretary of the Treasury, but I disagree, I never discussed this issue with him. This is not what I think. My commitment with keeping the State in the controlling interest of Copel and Sanepar is intact."

Currently, the State of Paraná owns 85,028,598 (eighty five million, twenty-eight thousand, five hundred ninety-eight) common shares, corresponding to 58.6% of voting rights shares and 31.1% of the Company's total shares.

Still referring to the newspaper article, Copel informs is not aware of any initiative to increase the distribution of dividends so far.

We remain at your disposal for any additional information you may require.
