Copel Distribuição is elected Brazil’s best distribution company according to consumers’ evaluation

Copel was elected Brazil’s best energy distribution company in Abradee Survey 2015, conducted by the Brazilian Association of Electricity Distribution Companies. This is the fourth time in five years that Copel wins the Abradee award in the “Consumer’s evaluation” category.

Distribution companies throughout the country participated in the award in different categories. Copel received the highest grade in the perceived quality satisfaction index (ISQP). This index is calculated from a questionnaire containing approximately 70 questions by means of which more than 2,000 consumers throughout the state of Paraná evaluated the company in five different quality items: energy supply, information and communication, company’s image, electricity bill and customer service.

The Abradee Award has been given yearly since 1999. With this year’s award, the Company accumulated 17 trophies, five of them in the consumer’s evaluation category and three of them as Brazil’s best distribution company.
